Word Search: Drive-In Movie Night

Drive-ins were at their peak around 1958, with more than 4,000 of them across the United States. Families watched double features from the car, with a speaker hooked on the window.

30-Minute ’60s Memory Lane Group Session

Small or large group · Seated · No experience needed

You’ll need

A copy of the word search and the coloring page for each person, the “Do You Remember?” cards cut apart, pencils or highlighters, colored pencils, and a way to play music.

0 to 5 min

Welcome and warm-up

Play a favorite ’60s song as people arrive. Tell everyone today’s theme is the drive-in movie, and ask who ever went to one.

5 to 15 min

Word search together

Hand out the puzzle and read the fun fact aloud. Call out a word, look for it as a group, and celebrate each find. Pairs work well.

15 to 25 min

Do You Remember?

Hand a card to one person to read aloud, or read it to them. Give everyone time to answer. Four to six cards is plenty.

25 to 30 min

Coloring and goodbye

Hand out the coloring page to start now and finish later. Thank everyone and repeat one memory you heard today.

Tips for memory care

- There are no wrong answers. Every memory counts.
- Read words aloud, offer highlighters, and keep the pace slow.
- Stop while it is still fun, and let people take pages home.
